STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your probation, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines based on your criminal record, personal history and characteristics, and the nature and circumstances of your offense, you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer, with prior approval of the Court, may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- (1) The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, or destructive device. Pursuant to Rehaif v. United States, 139 S.Ct. 2191 (2019) and Greer v. United States, 141 s.Ct. 2090 (2021), at the time of imposition of sentence, the Court advised defendant, on the record and in the presence of counsel, that defendant has been convicted of a felony and, as such, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Sections 922(g) and 924(a)(2) is prohibited from possessing a firearm and that such possession constitutes a federal crime punishable by a term of imprisonment of fifteen (15) years;
- (2) The defendant shall comply with the restitution order;
- (3) Upon request, the defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Department with full disclosure of her financial records, including co-mingled income, expenses, assets and liabilities, to include yearly income tax returns. With the exception of the financial accounts reported and noted within the presentence report, the defendant is prohibited from maintaining and/or opening any additional individual and/or joint checking, savings, or other financial accounts, for either personal or business purposes, without the knowledge and approval of the U.S. Probation Department. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of her financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of her income and expenses. The defendant shall cooperate in the signing of any necessary authorization to release information forms permitting the U.S. Probation Department access to her financial information and records. This condition shall apply only until restitution has been paid in full;
- (4) The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)), other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, or office to a search conducted by a United States probation officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. An officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner:
- (5) The defendant shall submit to a mental health evaluation to determine if treatment is appropriate. If found appropriate, the defendant shall participate in a mental health treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation Department. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of services rendered or any psychotropic medications as prescribed, via co-payment or full payment, in an amount to be determined by the Probation Department, based upon the defendant's ability to pay and/or the availability of third-party payment;
- (6) The defendant shall participate in an outpatient drug treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation Department; the Court recommends continued treatment at the current provider. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of such treatment not to exceed an amount determined reasonable by the Probation Department's Sliding Scale for Substance Abuse Treatment Services and shall cooperate in securing any applicable third-party payment, such as insurance or Medicaid. The defendant shall disclose all financial information and documents to the Probation Department to assess her ability to pay. The defendant shall not consume any alcohol or other intoxicants during and after treatment, unless granted a prescription by a licensed physician and proof of same is provided to the Probation Department. The defendant shall submit to testing during and after treatment to ensure abstinence from drugs and alcohol;
- (7) The defendant shall maintain lawful and verifiable employment.
